

The Juried Kelly Artists (Christmas) Market

Updated for 2023

You are invited to be part of the exciting Kelly Artists Market to be held December 1-23, 2023. This event will coincide with Wetumpka's Dicken's Downtown Christmas Celebration and Christmas on the Coosa, and this year we will continue for the month of December. Art Associate Members' entries will be free, and all other participants will pay a nominal set-up fee of $25. All art must be original by that member—no reproductions of other people's work. All displays will be arranged by The Kelly. The Kelly retains 25% of the sales and pays the taxes and set up costs. In order to keep the shop open for several weeks, we ask that artists volunteer shifts to help "man and woman" the shop.

NEW in 2023—Because we have a beautiful new location and a very large number of Art Associates now, the Kelly Board has requested that we jury which items and how many are entered. We want to encourage originality and quality, but we don't want to overwhelm the buyers. A committee of non-contributing Kelly members will make the decisions. It will be EXTREMELY IMPORTANT for the artists to provide photos of the work for the jurying process. As items sell, artists may certainly bring in replacements, but we will limit the starting number, depending on the size and type of each item. Also, if artists finish new items, those can be considered after the opening date. Every item must be individually tagged as in previous years, but we are working on a new digital coding system, which should help speed up the process for tagging and inventory—more information on this later.

We hope you will continue to support this show. We want as much variety as possible, including small hand-crafted gift items, but we are trying to keep the space clean, clear, classy, and inviting. Please start creating and photographing now, using quality materials and doing original work. We ask that pieces be unique to The Kelly, and we invite you to submit larger pieces for consideration also. We hope to continue drawing visitors from all over Alabama and beyond.
